Last Saturday morning Mrs. Trollinger widow of the late Absalom Trollinger, whose home was in the west end of this county, about three miles from Edge Hill, was found in the woods, beaten to insensibility. She was taken to the widow Hartzell's, where she had been staying; but despite all that could be done for her she died at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Mrs. Trollinger had disappeared on Thursday evening, and consequently had lain out for two days and nights before she was found. When discovered she was in her stocking feet, but here stockings were unsoiled. This denotes that her shoes were insensible. Occasionally an esteemed subscriber to the REGISTER wants to know why we charge $1.50 a year, when he "can get the Missouri Republican for a dollar." The question is usually the result of lack of consideration. The weekly city paper is made up from matter printed in the daily editions, and its cost has been defrayed by subscribers to that edition: all the additional cost to the publishers of the weekly is summed up in paper and press-work. Other things enter into the matter, advantageous to the city publisher, which we need not enumerate. But does the city paper supply your want? and, Texas Express, No. 604.......2:02 P. You know country publishers do lots of hard work, and do not often get rich-fair evidence that they are not extorting from their patrons. Your home paper, if it be fairly edited, is worthy your patronage. It is your home paper that prints your home news, that says a word of sympathy when you are sorrowful, that speaks a kind word of your dear dead, that advertises your town and farm, that builds up your town, that helps you in a thousand ways. Of course the town paper is not padded full of daily gossip of the city weeklies, nor can it compete with them in price, but tell us when the outside paper says a good word for you or your town. You should take both, but when you cannot afford to take both, your home paper should have the preference.
